MARY BOARDWAY JOINS THE MICHIGAN RESTAURANT ASSOCIATION AS VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION

LANSING, MI –The Michigan Restaurant Association (MRA) is pleased to announce that Mary Boardway has joined the organization as Vice President of Finance & Administration. Boardway started at the MRA on November 2.

“We are very excited to have Mary join the MRA team,” said Justin Winslow, president and CEO of the MRA. “She brings extensive financial management experience and an impressive knowledge of the association world, which is a great benefit to our board of directors and staff.”

In this position, Boardway is responsible for all financial aspects of the Association, as well as human resources, administration, technology, and building management.

Prior to joining the MRA, Boardway held the role of Director of Finance and Administration for the Associated Builders & Contractors (ABC) of Michigan. There she led the areas of finance and marketing/communications, and she was responsible for ABC of Michigan’s magazine as well as their Leadership Summit and member benefit offerings. Previous to her tenure with ABC of Michigan, Boardway served as Senior Director for the Michigan Society of Association Executives where she managed the financial, marketing, membership, and administration functions of that association.

Boardway holds a Master’s degree in Business Administration from Michigan State University, a Bachelor of Arts degree in both Economics/Business and French from Spring Arbor University, and the professional designation Certified Association Executive from the American Society of Association Executives. She resides in Williamston.
