MICHIGAN RESTAURANT ASSOCIATION NAMES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

LANSING, MI – The Michigan Restaurant Association (MRA) is pleased to announce the addition of Kevin Brennan, Gary Gagnon, Amy Zehnder Grossi, and Dan Roma to its Board of Directors. The new members represent the food and hospitality industry from locations across the state.

Kevin Brennan is a sales executive for the Coca-Cola National Foodservice Team. He resides in Novi.

Gary Gagnon is a professor of Marketing and Hospitality in the College of Business at Central Michigan University. He resides in Gladwin.

Amy Zehnder Grossi is the general manager of the Bavarian Inn Restaurant in Frankenmuth and is a fourth generation family owner. She resides in Frankenmuth.

Dan Roma is chief financial officer of National Coney Island. He resides in Grosse Pointe.

"We're excited to have Kevin, Gary, Amy, and Dan join the MRA's Board of Directors," said Brian DeBano, president and CEO of the MRA. "We're fortunate to have these distinguished industry professionals helping guide the Association."
